

Washington State Declaration of Write-in Candidacy for President and Vice President

How to file

1. office

Indicate which office you are filing for as a write-in candidate.

A separate form is required for each candidate (President and Vice President). Submit both forms together.

The responsibility of filing for the correct office is yours. You must ensure that you meet all qualifications of the office.

2. personal information

Enter your residence and personal information.

3. campaign information

If you do not provide campaign information, your personal information will be used as the primary contact information.

Government office addresses may not be used for campaigns.

A telephone number, website or email address is not required, but recommended.

Write-in candidate filings will be listed and made available to the public. Your name will not appear on the general election ballot nor in any official voters' pamphlet.

4. oath

Read, sign, and date the oath.

There is no filing fee for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States. A write-in candidate is not required to submit a certificate of nomination.

Once filed, a declaration of write-in candidacy may not be altered.
